Clary Illian : Clary Illian: A Potter's Potter before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Clary Illian: A Potter's Potter:

Clary Illian has been producing ceramics since the early 1960s, after graduating from the University of Iowas distinguished ceramics department and a two-year residency with world-renowned British ceramicist Bernard Leach. Clary Illian: A Potters Potter surveys many of the best works from her fifty-year career, including pots in stoneware, porcelain, and earthenware, the three major media in which she has worked. It is a revelatory look at one of Americas premier potters. This catalog was originally produced as a companion to the Cedar Rapids Museum of Arts Clary Illian pottery retrospective in 20122103.
