Great day in the morning! Love my mail lady. Your book arrived in my box. And none too late I may add. I have been in need of a creativity boost and this is just the ticket. I've cleaned up, rearranged, painted, duck taped, contact papered, then purged a bit and still I sit (although I love my space more now) trying to figure out what to do next. Just the arrival of your book was enough to push the creative light button back on. Well that and the fact that it's starting to cool down now and it rained. ANd it rained! AnD it rained! We got 5 inches between 2am and breakfast! Most rain in a short time ever. Parts of the city flooded, and for the first time the kids got a snow day. ie rain day. lol Thank you so much Lisa for your creative spark, sparkly personality and your friendship. All mean the world to me. Hurry everyone! You really need this book! As for me and my new book.....we're off to the studio to get started.
