A great book to start me and others doing mosaic projects that look just great...and good for kids to start with also. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. crafts for all seasons By ViAnn Neufeld I thought it would have more about how to do stained glass mosaic tile projects. It really wasn't what I wanted.

A springtime bouquet of paper flowers. Salt-dough picture frame gifts. A beautiful wreath of dried autumn leaves. These are just a few of the wonderful crafts you can create for holidays, celebrations, and gifts throughout the year! The 8-vol. Crafts for All Seasons set combines creativity with crafts that are fun and easy to do. And each project features materials that are both inexpensive and easy to find. Simple and satisfying, these books are perfect for kids on their own, or younger children with help from their parents or teachers.

From School Library Journal Grade 3-6-These titles present appealing crafts that kids can do with inexpensive, everyday materials. Mosaics uses beads, balls of aluminum foil, beans, seeds, buttons, and small bits of paper attached to various backgrounds to make colorful and useful items, such as picture frames and vases. Papier-M?ch? illustrates 15 projects made from either paper strips or paper pulp. In both books, instructions for each project conclude with a

"Use Your Imagination" suggestion to make the item more individual and creative. Bright, colorful photographs depict various stages of the activities. Sources of supplies, other books, and videos and Web sites are listed. Useful additions to the arts-and-crafts shelf of any collection.
