By Customer
While flipping through the cards, I am tempted to put aside so many of these to try right now! But, they will have to wait as I have other projects in the works. I like the wide variety of projects, not just scarves and hats. There are purses, superhero figures, a mini kitten, baby things, etc. Nice selection.

By Patricia Agar
I absolutely love the patterns!! I already looked through the entire year and there are so many great patterns! I like how more involved patterns are broken up into parts over a few days or however many days needed to complete the project. All of the pages are loose. You can use the box it comes in as a holder but mine tore as I opened so a little tape and it is fine.

By Pink Glitter
I'm a crocheter and while I have enjoyed having the calendar on my work desk, I have not found many patterns useful. At least not to my liking.

Ewesful for wooling away the days and keeping crochet hooks looping, the Crochet 2017 Calendar contains more than 100 exciting patterns from designers, yarn shops, and fiber manufacturers. Patterns include generic yarn weights to make it easy to substitute fibers from your stash or a favorite manufacturer. Create scarves, hats, baby blankets, toys, cowls, bags, mitts, and so much more. Ewell love these patterns!
