My mother had started the Two Peas in a Pod when I was pregnant with my twins. She gave it to me to finish back stitching and add names after they were born. Between taking care of newborn twins and moving I lost this magazine and wasn't able to finish it. I finally used google to find out what issue this chart was in and who had it for sale. I was thrilled to find it! I am almost finished now (they just turned 12 btw). The magazine was in excellent condition!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. This back issue is in wonderful shape and I am very happy with the purchaseBy K TowneI subscribed to this magazine back in the day, and made the iris pattern for my grandmother. I wore the magazine out but wanted to get the pattern again. This back issue is in wonderful shape and I am very happy with the purchase.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Two Peas in a PodBy FunDeeI have everyone of the Cross Stitch Country Crafts, starting with the premier issue, books and I'm sure I'll find mine someday. My nieces son is expecting twins and, in my opinion, this book has the only nice cross stitch for twins. And now my list is complete. I stopped getting this book when Better Homes Gardens took it over as the whole magazine changed and wasn't as nice or as friendly.

39 page, single issue magazine. Cross stitching designs include a "Twins" Sampler, several Blackwork patterns, and
