Strange and unusual designs of cakes, castles and outer space ....d.mcdonald style! The black backgrounds are great for neon colors ! Be sure to place cardstock behind the page you are coloring because markers will bleed through.

About the Author Deborah L. McDonald has been designing coloring books since 2003 while raising two daughters and teaching. She is now the grandmother of four all under the age of three at the time of this publication. She has seen coloring work miracles with students who had very little success elsewhere in school and with adults with "issues". She believes coloring is a great way to give the brain a workout without it being painful.
