Really goodBy knittingjewelerYou know how you buy a jewelry making book on line because of the picture on the cover and a few shots of the inside and then when you get it, you find the book is full of fluff and those pictures were the only ones worth while? (I even bought a book once and the instructions for the picture on the cover was not even in the book!) Well, this one is not like that at all. In fact, out of all the intricate and lovely designs in the book, I do not know how they settled on only one for the cover. The designs are intricate but doable and some will stretch you for sure. But this book is totally worth the price.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Wonderful IdeasBy art aratinGreat book with wonderful ideas, but why did it ship from Riverside, CA to Los Angeles, CA (about a two hour drive) via Chicago, IL?4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. BeautifulBy AZ REDThe first bead class I ever took was from Dallas at his old shop in a garage in Phoenix. Got me hooked on beading and he still doesn't disappoint!

Dallas Lovett's elegant-yet-graceful project designs capture the look crafters want nowsophisticated and stunning. He presents 25 of his most unique designs, all luxurious, with layered twists, and showcasing the creative potential of silver wire and beads. A basics section covers every technique in the book, and step-by-step photos provide the guidance crafters need to create these magnificent pieces, from the undulating, geometrical Cleopatra necklace to the shimmering Crown Jewels Pendant.

About the AuthorDallas Lovett's intricate and refined wire-woven jewelry embellished with beads has garnered him legions of fans among beaders. For the past 17 years, he has taught regularly at top venues such as the Bead Button Show and beaducation.com, as well as at beading guilds, on beading cruises, and internationally. His award-winning work has been published in Beadwork magazine and Art Jewelry magazine, among others. Dallas lives in Phoenix, AZ.
