Deb Buckingham : Dishcloth Diva Knits On! before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Dishcloth Diva Knits On!:

4 of 4 people found the following review helpful. definately not worth the priceBy SueSorry, this isn't worth the money. It's a paperback pamphlet. It's hard to lay the book open to read a pattern. Pictures are only of one side and don't include charts to figure out errors (first one I tried had one). I improved the book by taking it to FedEx office to spiral bind. I feel "taken" by the price of this book and wish I hadn't bought it. Just get a few patterns from Ravelry instead!0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. I'm not sure whether I love the patterns or the pattern names moreBy Pen NameI'm not sure whether I love the patterns or the pattern names more. I have several aunts and a mother with the same names as these patterns so I will be knitting those first. What a great idea!!! I will say that the paper used in the book is very thin. I wish they had used a thicker paper stock but other than that, it's a winner for dishcloth knitters.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. They are beautiful enough to use as patterns for blanketsBy Kathleen HallThe patterns are challenging enough without being so hard that you get frustrated getting started. They are beautiful enough to use as patterns for blankets. I actually liked this book more than the first one.

From the author of Dishcloth Diva comes Dishcloth Diva Knits On!, featuring 15 more charming cotton dishcloth patterns inspired by colorwork, cables, open work, and traditional rib knitting. Each pattern perfectly walks that tightrope between elegant design and workhorse appeal in the kitchen and bathroom. Throughout this collection, Deb's modern design, clear photography, and precise instructions will give you hours of simple knitting pleasure. The book also includes a step-by-step guide to organize your own group "lapghan" project: knit each dishcloth square with wool instead of cotton, and you have the beginnings of a beautiful blanket that is appropriate for charity giving. Deb's helpful tips make it fun and easy to start your own charity knitting group. Dishcloth Diva features a foreword from Kelley Petkun of Knit Picks, another avowed fan of the humble washcloth.

About the Author Deb Buckingham is the knitwear designer/author behind Dishcloth Diva and Dishcloth Diva Knits On. She enjoys knitting by the fire on cold days and nights, spending time with a good book, taking long walks, spending time with her honey, and knitting alongside her peeps as they sip on wine or coffee. She lives each day to its fullest and feels blessed to be called grandma. Deb has been published in the 2013-2014 knitting calendar released by Simon and Schuster. Shes also an Independent Designer for KnitPicks and Loveknitting. You can find out what shes up to at inspiringacreativelife.com.
