This one, however, is Great!! A wonderful assortment of patterns to choose from and a very warm little story with each one. With this book I plan to make all of the patterns. A rare occurrence with most books. Thanks 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Love this book and the second one By Kathleen Hall Love this book and the second one. I like to make small useful items to give. These patterns are challenging enough without being really complicated. You can work them while watching tv. I would recommend both books to any one that wants some beautiful patterns to do as gifts. The squares would make a good blanket too. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Pretty, Fun Patterns By mamaelle I am enjoying making my own cotton dishcloths, and the variety of patterns makes it fun.

Lets face it dishcloths are a pretty utilitarian knit. But they become a delightfully simple pleasure when they have a modern design twist. In Dishcloth Diva, Deb Buckingham brings new spin to an old idea. Each pattern offers a unique take on dishcloth design using knots, lines, ribs, and textures. With 20 patterns, including a wide variety of stitches, each design is easy and fun to knit, and fits effortlessly into your bag, ready for a road trip...or the morning subway commute. Beautiful photography shows each design up close and personal, while emphasizing stitch detail. Clear and precise step-by-step instructions guide you through each pattern, achieving stunning results at any skill level. These 20 modern, enjoyable knits are perfect both for beginners and for experienced knitters looking for a relaxing project. Dishcloth Diva features a foreword from Kay Gardiner of Mason-Dixon Knitting, an avowed fan of the humble washcloth. Published by Jmars Ink.

About the Author Deb Buckingham is the knitwear designer/author behind Dishcloth Diva and Dishcloth Diva Knits On. She enjoys knitting by the fire on cold days and nights, spending time with a good book, taking long walks, spending time with her honey, and knitting alongside her peeps as they sip on wine or coffee. She lives each day to its fullest and feels blessed to be called grandma. Deb has been published in the 2013-2014 knitting calendar released by Simon and Schuster. Shes also an Independent Designer for KnitPicks and Loveknitting. You can find out what shes up to at inspiringacreativelife.com.
