1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Wonderful Devotional/Bible study By Janet Adams This book offers wonderful insights into scripture. I use it for my daily Bible study. The weekly sayings called Staci-isms are fun and inspiring. Devotions are great for working women and busy mothers who may have limited quiet time, but also great for those who can spend more time studying the content of the scriptures. Would highly recommend this book. 0 of 0

Get ready to jump in DEEEEEP!By Judy B. BrackettStaci is real. This book allows the reader to have a daily experience with Jesus. Great for folks who just don't seem to find their way around the scriptures very easily. Each day... there is a thought, prayer and scriptures to guide you into something deeper. Also room for notes and even areas to doodle or color. Worth getting the paperback version and grab your crayons.

Enlightened by the Lord is a 365 day interactive journal with coloring pages available. As the reader you will be inspired and enjoy a quick-witted saying at the beginning of each week called a Sunday Staci-ism. Monday through Friday you'll settle in to hearing from the heart of our Heavenly Father. Conclude your week with reflection and journaling.
