

(Free) Essays from the American Midwest: The Quilt Maker's Story (Fiber Art Almanac)

Essays from the American Midwest: The Quilt Maker's Story (Fiber Art Almanac)

From Wildwood Press
*audiobook / ebooks / Download PDF / ePub / DOC

Download

Read Online

#4282516 in Books 2016-09-14Original language:English 10.00 x .25 x 8.00l, #File Name: 098592974X48
pages | File size: 68.Mb

From Wildwood Press : Essays from the American Midwest: The Quilt Maker's Story (Fiber Art Almanac) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Essays from the American Midwest: The Quilt Maker's Story (Fiber Art Almanac):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy AnnGreat stories and lovely creations.

In this inaugural book series of Fiber Art Almanac: Essays from the American Midwest, ten regional and national stage quilt makers add their voice to the collective narrative about textiles in the Midwest today. Their quilt making is the visual paradigm through which they tell their stories. They share their journeys, connections to their childhoods, and influences from their contemporaries, fans, and travels. From heartbreaking loss and grief, finding oneself amidst the rubble, and reflecting on the joy of family memories. What's new in quilting arts today? The momentum of change continues as more people enter the quilting arena with completely new and diverse ideas and methods of creating compelling art. The quilts in this book offer a window to techniques that include imprinting and dyeing on fabric with botanicals, painting whole cloth, raw edge applique, improvisational piecing and hand stitching, multi-media, playing with color, texture and more! Quilt Makers featured in this volume: Pat Bishop Katherine Simon Frank Carole Ann Frocillo Helen Geglio Jamie Lyn Kara Mary Lachman Carol Marshall Ryn Pitts Julia Voake Peggy Wright

About the Author So far, Wildwood Press has created awareness of over 150 Midwest fiber artists through printed publications, online feature stories, exhibits and events. This is done via the nationally sold annual calendar, Fiber Art Almanac; online Almanac Blog, a twice monthly newsletter and social media. In 2014, Wildwood Press founded Midwest Fiber Arts Trails and currently there are three local, community-based Fiber Arts Trail destinations in Minnesota and Wisconsin with another trail in the works. Cedarburg Spur Fiber Arts Trail is located in Cedarburg-Grafton-Thiensville, Wisconsin, Pine to Prairie Fiber Arts Trail is located in Bemidji, Minnesota area and Threaded Streams Fiber Arts Trail is in Baraboo-Portage-Lodi, Wisconsin. Members include fiber artists, businesses and non-profit organizations.