Chad Alice Hagen, Jorie Johnson : Fabulous Felted Scarves: 20 Wearable Works of Art before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Fabulous Felted Scarves: 20 Wearable Works of Art:

The authors are professional felters and have been working in felt and teaching workshops for many years. So the projects are well thought out and sound. I made many stunning scarves following only this book. Not super easy.3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. Nice projects, low priceBy RhondaI like a lot the projects, but because I am a newbie I was a bit intimidated by the process. Lots of photos of the process and of finished pieces, including a gallery. Some items are conservative, while others go from modern all the way to the "I wouldn't be caught dead in it" category. Lots of the garments are shown on models so you can see the drape and length.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Looking forward to using this bookBy FloridagalVery nicely outlined, illustrated, and detailed with a lot of variety. This will be my go-to book, I think. Although there's a lot on the internet, it's always great to have a book in front of you to help you learn a new process and refer to when your (my) sloppy discs don't remember step 4 or 5. Love it.

Felting is hotter than ever and scarves are fabulous first projects for crafters to try. The simple process yields varied results, with rich colours, forms and visual appeal. Created by two internationally known designers, these 20 spectacular boas, wraps, shawls and stoles are wearable art.

About the Author Chad Alice Hagen's hand-felted wool has been exhibited internationally. She has been featured in numerous publications. Jorie Johnson produces one-of-a-kind clothing and accessories for the discerning collector.
