Diana Vining : Flower Friends Paper Dolls (Dover Paper Dolls) before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Flower Friends Paper Dolls (Dover Paper Dolls):

4 of 5 people found the following review helpful. You have got your work "cut" out for you !By Ellen RFirst the good things: Dolls are punch out and beautifully drawn. They are just shy of 8 1/2" tall. Clothes are cute, colorful, beautifully drawn, and modern in design. Price is good (could have been excellent). Now the bad: Dolls are on thicker paper than clothes, but are still a little flimsy. Clothes are on glossy paper, a little thicker than printer paper. Clothes are NOT punch out, they are cut out. Dolls are two sided. One little girl on one side and another little girl on the other side. Clothes instead of being able to be worn by all 4 girls are assigned to a particular girl with the first letter of their name on one of the clothes tabs to let you know which doll wears which clothes. Their legs and arms positions determines this as well. So you must use Doll A clothes with Doll A and no other. I would have liked to have known all the particulars before buying these (I probably would not have), taking into consideration the time it will take to cut out 66 pieces. Some of them a little bigger than my thumbnail.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. I think she will like them.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. but the great niece who got it for Christmas is happy with ...By MI didn't get to see it, but the great niece who got it for Christmas is happy with her first paper doll book.
