About the Author Mia Harper lives in North West England. She has a real passion for Art Nouveau, Art Deco, Edwardian, Victorian, Georgian and Renaissance periods of art. She is a qualified Graphic Designer who lived and worked in London spending many years training other professionals in some of the top companies and advertising agencies helping them create magazines, brochures and leaflets. When she returned to the North West she decided to stop training others and spend more time developing her own designs. Needing to instil a manageable work life balance and address some personal issues she sought help through mindfulness therapy which set her on the road to practising living in the now. She has produced a collection of adult colouring books and writes childrens fiction. See the Bold Collection of Mandalas.
