Suzan Germond : Found Art Mosaics before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Found Art Mosaics:

EtheridgeThis is the best book I've acquired lately on making mosaics from found objects such as dinner plates and other ceramics, as well as many other items and materials. Nothing in the book looks 'crafty cute'. All the examples are beautiful, interesting and artistic. I especially wanted a book that covered garden art and this book does a fantastic job on that. The instructions on how to use the tools and materials are excellent and the illustrations are top quality.This book is a must for anyone just getting started and challenging enough for anyone interested in mosaic art as well.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. great bookBy birdiebirdThis book offers a variety of fresh ideas for readers to consider whether a first project or for a more seasoned mosaic artist. As an avid collector of oddball items I am inspired to put them to use in a mosaic that will be functional. I was inspired.2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Basic "How To Book"By Marilyn HauensteinToo basic. Probably not a bad book for a beginner. It was recommended when I was purchasing other books so I got it. It isn't at the same level as the others I purchased. It's more of a 'how to' rather than an 'interesting idea' book.

Found materials are taking the craft world by storm because the creative potential is tremendous. Contemporary mosaic artists who continue to expand the limits of construction and materials can benefit greatly from this movement toward reuse. Even the mosaic neophytes among us can explore the myriad possibilities of these new materials with this fabulous guide. Learn everything you need to get started in the world of found art mosaics, from materials, glass, ceramics, natural materials, grouts, surfaces, sealants, safety gear, and more. The 27 projects here including the Buttons Pebbles Vase, Glittering Jewels Belt Buckle, and Recycled Bathtub Garden Planter each reuse and repurpose objects differently, as the found object may be the surface, the tesserae, or both.
